

"My father died of colon cancer. What a relief to know my colon cancer screening was covered.

Have you had your recommended cancer screenings?

Talk to your doctor today. I'm so glad I did."

"When I learned I had breast cancer, I was determined to beat it. But I feared running out of my insurance benefit. What a relief to learn that lifetime caps on benefits are no longer allowed."

"I've worked hard to provide my employees with health insurance, but in recent years rising premiums made it really difficult. This year will be different. My business qualifies for a new small business health insurance tax credit."

The new health care law gives us all more security and greater peace of mind.

"Our baby, Max was born with a bleeding disorder, making minor bruises life threatening. We knew we could take care of him, but were afraid that our insurance would refuse to cover him. It's so good to know insurance companies can no longer deny children coverage because of pre-existing conditions."
